

caterpillars, 2 of the nests of caterpillars, 3 of chrysalids, 2 of parasites, 33 of structural details in all stages of life, 19 maps and groups of maps to illustrate the geographical distribution of butterflies, and 3 portraits of early naturalists of this country,—in all, about 2,000 figures on 96 plates, of which 41 are colored. The text contains 2,000 pages, including an introduction of 104 pages, and an appendix of 150 pages, which contains descriptions of such species concerned as have not been found within the limits of New England, and also descriptions of all known parasites of North American butterflies, by Messrs. Howard and Williston. Special attention is paid in this work to the distribution, habits, and life-histories of our butterflies; and careful descriptions are given of every stage of life, not only for the species, but for the genera and higher groups wherever the data are attainable. Analytical tables applicable to every stage (a feature never before attempted in a work of this kind) are introduced wherever possible. Seventy-six essays scattered through the work discuss such special questions as arise in studying butterflies, and in themselves form a complete treatise on the life of these insects. The work makes three volumes: the first contains the introduction and the family Nymphalidae; the second, the remaining families of butterflies; the third, the appendix, plates, and a full index. Explanations of the plates are placed beside them. The price, bound in three volumes, half levant, gilt top, is $75. It will be ready for delivery, bound, Oct. 1, 1889. Communications concerning it should be addressed to Samuel H. Scudder, Cambridge, Mass.

LONGMANS, GREEN & CO'S NEW BOOKS.

A NEW VOLUME IN LONGMANS' ELEMENTARY SCIENCE MANUALS.

MAGNETISM AND ELECTRICITY.

By A. W. POYSER, M.A., Assistant Master in The Wyggeston and Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School, Leicester. With 235 Illustrations. Crown 8vo, 80 cents.

\* This book is the result of practical experience in teaching, and it has been thrown into experimental form from a conviction that, if the student is to gain an adequate knowledge of the subject, it is absolutely necessary for him to acquire it by experiment. Scientific knowledge derived from mere book-work, with a view to pass some particular examination, is almost useless, and indeed is not unlikely to produce a result the opposite of that intended by the student.*—EXTRACT FROM AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

\* A full list of this series will be sent upon application.*

HANDBOOK OF COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY.

By G. G. CHISHOLM, M.A., B.Sc. 8vo, $5.00.

"This book is designed to meet a want recognized by all who are interested in adapting our education to the needs of the time. . . . I have endeavored to impart an 'intellectual interest' to the study of the geographical facts relating to commerce. . . . another way of saying that it has been my aim to make the book really educational. In writing the work I have had three classes chiefly in view—first, teachers who may wish to impart additional zest to their lessons in geography from the point of view of commerce; secondly, pupils in the higher schools and colleges that are now devoting increased attention to commercial education; and thirdly, those entering on commercial life, who take a sufficiently intelligent interest in their business to make their private studies bear on their daily pursuits."

—EXTRACT FROM AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

A PRACTICAL PLAN FOR ASSIMILATING THE ENGLISH AND AMERICAN MONEY AS A STEP TOWARDS A UNIVERSAL MONEY.

By the late WALTER BAGEHOT, Reprinted from the Economist, with Additions and a Preface. Second Edition. Crown 8vo, 75 cents.

THE ROTIFERA; OR, WHEEL-ANIMALCULES.

By C. T. HUDSON, LL.D., Cantab, F.R.S. Assisted by P. H. GOSSE, F.R.S. SUPPLEMENT, 4to, 64 pages, with Plates XXXI. to XXXIV. Paper covers, $4.00.

"It was originally intended that the two volumes of the 'Rotifera,' should contain all the foreign, as well as all the British species; but while the work was being written, so many new British forms were discovered that want of space compelled the authors to omit all but a few of the more remarkable foreign Rotifera. The Supplement, however, now remedies this omission; and completes the work, by describing every known foreign species, as well as the British that have been discovered since its publication in 1886."

—EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

\* The complete work, with 34 plates (30 colored), 2 vols., 4to, cloth, with Supplement as above, $28.00.*
