

special attention is given throughout the book to the national banking system of the United States. The book cannot fail to be useful, not only to students, but also to men of business who wish to understand the methods of banking without being practically engaged in the work.

The French Invasion of Ireland in '98. By VALERIAN GRIBAYE-DOFF. New York, Truth Seeker Company. 8°. $1.50.

THIS interesting work is not only a strong "side-light" on the times, persons, and places of which it treats, but also an important footnote to the history of Europe. It is well written and easily read; and the many authorities quoted or referred to prove that there was no lack of material from which to compile a truthful narrative of one of the many extraordinary episodes of the French Revolution. The greater events taking place at the time, Bonaparte and his doings then furnishing more than ample material for historians, crowded out or overshadowed the fact that Gen.

Humbert, with a handful of French soldiers (little more than a thousand), penetrated to the heart of Ireland, held his own for several weeks against vastly superior numbers, and conquered an entire province before he was finally compelled to surrender to overwhelming odds. And the reasons why the apparently quixotic expedition failed of its purpose, or at least did not achieve a greater measure of success, are apparent to all who peruse this narrative, and at the same time consider the course of recent events in Ireland and the erratic actions of some of the present leaders in Irish political affairs.

The interest in the stirring events narrated in this volume will be enhanced by the fact that the commander of the expedition, Gen. Humbert, afterwards became an American citizen, served with honor in the war of 1812, and distinguished himself at the battle of New Orleans, where, by one of the coincidences of warfare, he found himself opposed to some of the English officers who had contributed to his defeat in Ireland.

Dyspepsia

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

In dyspepsia the stomach fails to assimilate the food. The Acid Phosphate assists the weakened stomach, making the process of digestion natural and easy.

Dr. R. S. McCOMB, Philadelphia, says:
"Used it in nervous dyspepsia, with success."

Dr. W. S. LEONARD, Hinsdale, N. H., says:

"The best remedy for dyspepsia that has ever come under my notice."

Dr. T. H. ANDREWS, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, says:

"A wonderful remedy which gave me most gratifying results in the worst forms of dyspepsia"

THE AMERICAN RACE:

By DANIEL G. BRINTON, M.D.

A Linguistic Classification and Ethnographic Description of the Native Tribes of North and South America. This is the first attempt ever made to classify all the Indian tribes by their languages, and it also treats of their customs, religions, physical traits, arts, antiquities, and traditions. The work comprises the results of several years of study in this special field.

Price, postpaid, $2.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR. RACES AND PEOPLES.

"The book is good, thoroughly good, and will long remain the best accessible elementary ethnography in our language."—The Christian Union.

"We strongly recommend Dr. Brinton's 'Races and Peoples' to both beginners and scholars. We are not aware of any other recent work on the science of which it treats in the English language."—Asiatic Quarterly.

"His book is an excellent one, and we can heartily recommend it as an introductory manual of ethnology."—The Monist.

"A useful and really interesting work, which deserves to be widely read and studied both in Europe and America."—Brighton (Eng.) Herald.

"This volume is most stimulating. It is written with great clearness, so that anybody can understand, and while in some ways, perforce, superficial, grasps very well the complete field of humanity."—The New York Times.

"Dr. Brinton invests his scientific illustrations and measurements with an indescribable charm of narration, so that 'Races and Peoples' avowedly a record of discovered facts, is in reality a strong stimulant to the imagination."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

"The work is indispensable to the student who requires an intelligent guide to a course of ethnographic reading."—Philadelphia Times.

THE MODERN MALADY; or, Sufferers from 'Nerves.'

An introduction to public consideration, from a non-medical point of view, of a condition of ill-health which is increasingly prevalent in all ranks of society. In the first part of this work the author dwells on the errors in our mode of treating Neurasthenia, consequent on the wide ignorance of the subject which still prevails; in the second part, attention is drawn to the principal causes of the malady. The allegory forming the Introduction to Part I. gives a brief history of nervous exhaustion and the modes of treatment which have at various times been thought suitable to this most painful and trying disease.

"The story is a piquant, good-humored, entertaining narrative of a canoe voyage. A neater, prettier book is seldom seen."—Literary World.

"This is a sprightly narrative of personal incident. The book will be a pleasant reminder to many of rough experiences on a frontier which is rapidly receding."—Boston Transcript.

"The picture of our desolate North-western territory twenty-five years ago, in contrast with its civilized aspect to-day, and the pleasant features of the writer's style, constitute the claims of his little book to present attention."—The Dial.

Fact and Theory Papers

I. THE SUPPRESSION OF CONSUMPTION. By GODFREY W. HAMBLETON, M.D. 12°, 40c.

"The inestimable importance of the subject, the eminence of the author, and the novelty of his work, all combine to render the little treatise worthy of special consideration. . . . We heartily commend Dr. Hambleton's booklet, and wish there were more such works."—Editorial, Boston Daily Advertiser.

"The monograph is interesting in style, scholarly, and well worthy of careful consideration. It is devoid of technical expressions, and can be easily read and digested."—Pharmaceutical Era.

II. THE SOCIETY AND THE "FAD." By APPLETON MORGAN, Esq. 12°, 20 cents.

"Mr. Morgan founds a sensible and interesting address upon a text furnished by a sentence from a young ladies' magazine; namely, 'Browning and Ibsen are the only really dramatic authors of their century.'"
—New York Sun.

III. PROTOPLASM AND LIFE. By C. F. COX. 12°, 75 cents.

"To be commended to those who are not specialists."—Christian Union.

"Physicians will enjoy their reading, and find in them much food for thought."—St. Louis Medical and Surgical Journal.

"Mr. Cox reviews the history of his subject with knowledge and skill."—Open Court.

"It is of extreme interest."—Medical Age.

"Worthy of a careful perusal."—Indiana Medical Journal.

"An interesting and popular account of the tendencies of modern biological thought."—Popular Science News.

"All interested in biological questions will find the book fascinating."—Pharmaceutical Era.

"The author displays a very comprehensive grasp of his subject."—Public Opinion.

"Deserves the attention of students of natural science."—Critic.

IV. THE CHEROKEES IN PRE-COLUMBIAN TIMES. By CYRUS THOMAS. 12°, $1.

Dr. Thomas has already presented to the public some reasons for believing the Cherokees were mound-builders, but additional evidence bearing on the subject has been obtained. A more careful study of the Delaware tradition respecting the Tallegwi satisfies him that we have in the Bark Record (Walam Olum) itself proof that they were Cherokees. He thinks the mounds enable us to trace back their line of migration even beyond their residence in Ohio to the western bank of the Mississippi. The object is therefore threefold: 1. An illustration of the reverse method of dealing with prehistoric subjects; 2. Incidental proof that some of the Indians were mound-builders; 3. A study of a single tribe in the light of the mound testimony. This work will be an important contribution to the literature of the Columbian discovery which will doubtless appear during the coming two years.

"A valuable contribution to the question, 'Who were the mound-builders?'"—New York Times.

"Professor Cyrus Thomas undertakes to trace back the evidences of a single Indian tribe into the prehistoric or mound-building age."—N. Y. Sun.

"An interesting paper."—Christian Union.

V. THE TORNADO. By H. A. HAZEN. 12°, $1.

"The little book is extremely interesting."—Boston Transcript.

"A book which will find many readers. The chapter on 'Tornado Insurance' is of interest to all property-holders in the tornado States."—Boston Herald.

"The Tornado is a popular treatise on an important province of meteorology, in which science, the author, Professor Hazen of the United States Signal Service, may be regarded as an expert."—Philadelphia Ledger.

VI. TIME-RELATIONS OF MENTAL PHENOMENA. By JOSEPH JASTROW. 12°, 50c.

"All students of psychology will find the book full of interesting facts. Professor Jastrow's good qualities as a thinker and as a writer are too well and too widely known to require comment."—Public Opinion.

"A useful work for psychologists—as well as the general reader—by setting forth in brief and easily intelligible form the present state of knowledge in regard to the time required for the performance of mental acts."—The Critic.

VII. HOUSEHOLD HYGIENE. By MARY TAYLOR BISSELL. 12°, 75 cents.

"A sensible brochure."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"Practical and sensible."—Public Opinion.

"The advice and excellent information which it contains are tersely and intelligently expressed."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

"Practical and simply written."—Springfield Republican.

"The best monograph on home hygiene."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
