THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PETER BENT BRIGHAM HOSPITAL

ON May 5, 6 and 7 a celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the opening of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital for the reception of patients was held at the hospital in conjunction with a reunion of graduates of the professional and nursing services of the hospital. The Peter Bent Brigham Hospital is closely affiliated with the Medical School of Harvard University, functioning as a teaching and research unit of that Medical School.

On each of the three days up to 10:30 A. M. various hospital demonstrations, ward visits and surgical operations were conducted. After this there was a program of scientific and nursing papers, more than one hundred in number, presented by graduates and present members of the hospital professional and nursing staff.

On the forenoon of May 7 there was a large public meeting at which the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, bishop emeritus of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, gave the invocation; His Excellency Charles F. Hurley, Governor of the Commonwealth, gave the greetings of the state; His Honor Maurice J. Tobin, mayor of Boston, the greetings of the city of Boston, and Dr. Dean Lewis, first surgeon-in-chief pro tempore of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, surgeon-in-chief of the Johns Hopkins Hospital, the greetings of the medical profession; President James B. Conant, Harvard University, the greetings of the university. Dr. Henry A. Christian, physician-in-chief of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital and Hersey professor of the theory and practice of physic in the Harvard Medical School, made an address entitled "A Hospital Comes to Town—The Story of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston"; Dr. Elliott C. Cutler, surgeon-in-chief of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital and Moseley professor of surgery in the Harvard Medical School, an address entitled "A Surgeon Looks at the Record," and Dr. C. Sidney Burwell, physician at the Peter Bent

Brigham Hospital and dean of the Faculty of Medicine of Harvard University, one entitled "The Future of the Hospital." The benediction was pronounced by the Rt. Rev. Francis L. Phelan, chancellor of the Archdiocese of Boston. These exercises were followed by a luncheon on the hospital grounds for all invited guests.

On each afternoon of these three days tea was served on the hospital lawn. On the evening of May 5 a musical comedy was given at the hospital by the resident professional staff. On the evening of May 7 there was a dinner for four hundred at the Vanderbilt Hall at the Harvard Medical School, followed by a dance at Longwood Towers, Brookline. At all these events the graduates were the guests of the trustees of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital.

DEDICATION OF THE FRANKLIN INSTITUTE OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

CEREMONIES attending the dedication of the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, will be held on May 19, 20 and 21. On the first day the theme will be "Franklin—Patriot and Man." At dawn guns will be fired over the Schuylkill River. Registration will open at the institute at 9 A. M., after which a heroic marble statue of Benjamin Franklin, executed by James Earle Fraser, will be unveiled and representatives of the British, French and Canadian Governments will place wreaths at the foot of the statue. The ceremonies will be followed by military displays and maneuvers on Benjamin Franklin Parkway. There will be a tea and reception in the afternoon for cabinet officers, foreign representatives, state governors, local officials, delegates and other distinguished guests, and in the evening the Honorable Daniel C. Roper, Secretary of Commerce, will make the principal address at a dinner of the Poor Richard Club.

On Friday, May 20, half-hour lectures on pure science will begin at 10 A. M. in the morning and at 2:30 P. M. in the afternoon, to commemorate Franklin as philosopher and educator. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock. The following speakers will take part in the program:

Sir James C. Irvine, principal and vice-chancellor, University of Saint Andrews, Aberdeen; Dr. C. E. K. Mees, director, Research Laboratory, Eastman Kodak Company; Dr. Gilbert N. Lewis, dean, College of Chemistry, University of California; Dr. George D. Birkhoff, Harvard University, and Dr. Forest Ray Moulton, permanent secretary, American Association for the Advancement of Science; Dr. Arthur L. Day, director of the Geophysical Laboratory, Carnegie Institution; Dr. Louis Martin, director, The Pasteur Institute, Paris; Dr. Thomas H. Morgan, California Institute of Technology, and Dr. Merritt L. Fernald, Harvard University.
