

PARR STIRRED REACTORS

For working pressures up to 1000 psig.
Temperatures to 350° C.

Convenient one and two liter sizes operate interchangeably in the same electric heater.

These compact, bench-scale units provide excellent facilities for alkylation, catalytic reduction, digestion, extraction, halogenation, hydrogenation, methylation, nitration, polymerization, pressure leaching, sulfonation and many other laboratory operations in which heat and pressure must be applied to a chemical system. They can be supplied in any of eight different corrosion resistant alloys.
